THE
LORD OF
HOLLANDS
LETTER FROM

YORK, the 12. of this in-
TO THE HONORABLE
LORDS OF PARLIAMENT

My Lords,
IN discharge of my care and duty to the PARLIAMENT, I can only say this, That having received their orders for a present disbanding of the Army, beginning with the Horse, I have given order that the Regiment of my Lord of Ca-

A;

navan, narvan, Master Willmot, and Sir Thomas La- zar, together with Master Parches Troop, shall as farre as for the present I can doe be prepared to be forth with disbanded and so the rest to follow: having given directions that the Accompts of these Regiments may be in readinesse for those men that are appointed to take care of the Countreyes satisfaction, both in the debts of the Officers, and likewise for the Billetting of the common Souldiers; which howsoever, put in a way by the casuall meeting of Sir Thomas Hamby at Donca- ster, where some of the Horse Troops are quartered, which I drew together to attend his MAJESTIE into the Towne, which occasioned some discourse betweene us, that as yet I had not received the names of those Gentlemen, neither had any of them beene with me that are appointed to assist in these Accompts be-twene the Army and this Countrey.

 Whereupon he shewed me a Letter written unto him, and some others, from the West Riding, from the Knights of the Shire

sheweth that purpose, but told me that as yet they had not met to agree of any thing about it, but that within a day or two they should do so. My advice unto him then was out of my desire to obey as speedily as possibly I might, the orders of the Parliament, that they would lose no time in it, and by a joynt Letter informed me of their orders for this Service, as that so I might for the Division (a place being named) appoint the Officers to assist their Accompts with them; and likewise that those Gentlemen for the other Divisions may doe the like, who, I suppose, the Assizes and coming of the Judges to this Towne bring upon Monday next, may have deferred the giving me the Accompts of this their imployment untill that time. I pray God by the Indulgences that comes amongst us, there be not at this time a generall Affize and a Indgement appointed for this Kingdome, in these great troubles, which are such as cannot be prevented or averted, but by advised Counsell that are expected pected from our great and highest Count-sell the Parliament, who may be both assured and secured of all readinesse in our obedience to those orders I have received from them, being full of that respect and dutie that becomes me towards their Lordships Commands.

Wee heare that the Generall of the Scottish Army, will shewe unto his Ma-JESTIE their Army, as he passeth by New-Castle, the which some say, hath beeke increased of late, if it hath beeke so, I conceive it is onely to make it ap-peare in a better posture before his Ma-JESTIE, since now there can be no other end for it, this Parliament being assured of their sudden marching into the Kingdome. And likewise I conceive of their speedy disbanding in Scotland, which will both ease their Charge, and the hearts of many in these parts, that otherwise will continue in their fears, and I know not how to be more assured in these great times to be more assured in these great
